

Student Outcomes

Careers in Code is a coding bootcamp that teaches computer programming to women and minorities to help combat poverty in Central NY. We provide students with the technical skills they need to obtain internships and entry level software development jobs with local employers after 24 weeks of instruction. Our first cohort graduated in August of 2019.

91%

Graduation rate
from the full 24 week
program

63%

Placement rate
within 180 days of graduation

Our Graduates See Results

7 of 11 graduates are employed in internship, full time, or consulting arrangements

56% *Average
Salary Increase*

$45,490 Average Starting Salary

Our Talent Stays Local

TERAKEET

Testimonials

Careers in Code is a coding bootcamp that teaches computer programming to women and minorities to help combat poverty in Central NY. We provide students with the technical skills they need to obtain internships and entry level software development jobs with local employers after 24 weeks of instruction. Our first cohort graduated in August of 2019.

"Applying for Careers in Code was one of the best decisions I've made in my entire life!"

KELLY COREY

"After completing the 24 weeks, I can talk comfortably with seasoned developers because now I am a Full Stack Developer!"

KARIN THORNE

"I went from having zero experience in web development to having so much knowledge about the field and the expectations required to thrive in the industry."

ANA AOMBE

"Careers in Code has been a game changer for my career, and has opened up so many amazing opportunities."

KAITLYN WARBOY

"I feel like I'm so much further ahead in my journey to becoming employed in the tech field."

DANA MCMULLEN

"Applying [for Careers in Code] was one of the best decisions I made and I'm excited to see where it takes me in life."

TIMOTHY LILES